The results from our self-evaluation were positive in the sense that students who qualified were served and attended all the events that were available to them. Students were challenged with differentiated instruction in the classrooms. Seeing our small population students who excel are able to move on at their pace and not be held back. The climate of the schools serve the students very well because it is such a close knit community, students are able to be challenged and move toward their potential.

As seen by our reflection our students did receive specialized instruction where appropriate for their aptitude, skill and creativity. Each child was given the opportunity to excel and grow in an enriching environment, conducive to meeting their needs; they also were given the opportunity to convene with other gifted and talented students over the course of the year.

We have noted that our gifted students are excited about school, parents are positive about the program, teachers are using strategies to differentiate and ensure student success.

The area in which we felt we could improve and have been working on over the last three years is the area of assessment. We have adopted STAR 360 and IXL but are seriously considering buying into NWEA this school year.
